Spotlight on NAACOS Conferences

NAACOS meetings facilitate the nation's largest congregation of ACO leaders twice a year. There, they receive actionable information for operational excellence via policy developments from CMS officials and best practices from ACO experts. Our conferences enable ACOs to network with ACO colleagues, share their experiences, and with limited vendor presence. The 3:1 ratio of ACO to vendor attendee engenders a learning environment as a priority. Each NAACOS conference addresses the needs of new and established ACOs through plenaries, breakouts by track, exhibits, and pre-conference workshops. NAACOS conferences attract more than 600 attendees; most of whom are senior decision makers from ACOs. Although our conferences are open to all ACO employees, NAACOS members receive significant discounts on registration fees.

NAACOS Advocacy and Policy Work

Advocating for policy changes to ensure the long-term sustainability and success of Medicare ACOs and educating ACOs on the complex and ever-changing policies governing them are two of the core components of our mission. We are proud to serve our member ACOs and act as a voice for the ACO community with Congress and the federal departments and agencies overseeing Medicare.

NAACOS Is The Voice of ACOs! We:

- Effectively advocate before CMS, the Administration, and Congress on behalf of ACOs.
- Shape legislative agenda via our members with voting privileges, committees and Board seats.
- Provide regular newsletters on advocacy efforts, policies and regulations affecting ACOs.
- Develop grass roots templates for members to engage their state's leadership.

NAACOS efforts on Capitol Hill are a blend of education about our membership and advocacy for them. Healthcare issues evolve, and it is our job to keep Members of Congress and their staffs informed on the issues important to ACOs. We accomplish through meetings with Members, their staff and with Committees with jurisdiction over ACO policy (i.e. Senate Finance Committee, House Ways & Means, House Energy & Commerce Committee, etc.). Seen as a resource on ACO issues, these committees frequently contact NAACOS for input on potential or pending legislation. Our submission to the Ways and Means committee as they compiled a set of bills to provide regulatory relief is but one of our many examples of being the authority on ACOs.

Over the past three sessions of Congress, NAACOS has worked closely with Congressional staff and other leading healthcare organizations to introduce and advance The ACO Improvement Act; a bill making operational changes promoting coordinated health care, encourages Medicare ACOs to succeed and remain a strong value-based healthcare initiative for the nation's senior citizens. NAACOS often prepares Statements for the Record when a committee is hosting a hearing of interest, as we did regarding the importance of coordinated care.

NAACOS' website and newsletter share our activities with our membership, as well as those of their Senators and Representatives. We have established a grassroots platform enabling our membership to contact their Washington representation. There, they can comment on important legislation as well. The webpage can be viewed here.

In addition to our legislative advocacy efforts, NAACOS has provided numerous policy resources and educational materials for ACOs to better understand the plethora of government regulations and requirements they must meet to be successful, including new Quality Payment Program (QPP) criteria and keeping up to date with the new Track 1+ model's requirements to name a few. Some highlights of our 2017 resources include:

- Differences Between Medicare ACO Tracks that May Impact ACO Financial Results: White Paper and Interactive Tool developed exclusively for NAACOS members
